WHERE TO LOOK FOR PAID INTERSHIPS

Here are 4 ways to find a paid internship near you:

1. Handshake – Search your area for “paid internships near me” on Handshake’s job filtering feature.

2. Ole Miss Career Center – Get in touch with Brendan, our internship coordinator, for help with all things internship related! Also check out the job search engines listed on our website.

3. Personal Network – Reach out to classmates, friends, and professors to see if they have any connections or any paid internship openings.

4. Handshake Network – Search on Handshake for other students and alumni who have had internships that you’re interested in. They can answer your questions about their job and how to go about applying to something similar.

Answering Your Questions About PAID INTERNSHIPS

WHEN SHOULD I START LOOKING FOR 2021 INTERNSHIPS?
Get ahead of the game and start your research now! If you want to intern for a specific company, make an effort to check out information on their application process.

HOW DO I KNOW IF AN INTERNSHIP IS PAID?
Just ask! If the compensation isn’t clearly noted on the internship role page, then simply reach out to the company with a courteous email and inquire about the role.

WHAT INTERNSHIPS PAY THE MOST?
Paid internships vary in the compensation they give to their interns, depending on the specific role, location, and if you’re full-time or part-time. For example, the compensation of a paid I.T. internship will be different from that of a paid law internship.

WHAT INTERNSHIPS DO NOT PAY?
There is no defining characteristic of an unpaid internship, but you can usually tell by looking at the internship listing page. Some internships will offer college credit rather than monetary compensation.
